Struggling to make your company more eco-conscious?

Green-On Project offers a fun and effective toolkit to:

- Boost eco-awareness, motivating and making sustainable practices measurable.
- Unlock green innovation, helping your organization identify resources and develop green innovation potential.
- Embrace a greener future, shift management mindset, and embed sustainability in your company culture.

How does it work?

Green-ON training package provides three FREE training tools that integrate psychology, and leadership principles with sustainable and eco-innovation management models to enhance eco-responsible behaviors in the organizations, especially of the top management and HR staff. The training package is made of:

- Green-ON Management Handbook: a comprehensive guide to sustainable management with practical tips and definitions;
- Online self-assessment tool: track your company's environmental performance and set eco-goals;
- Gamified training tools: Green Business Card Game, to strengthen cooperation and sustainability skills.

Eco-Coaching Method, to build environmental awareness and inspire action through coaching techniques.

All the results will be available in multiple languages:

English, Polish, Hungarian, Portuguese, Greek and Italian
